

A Comprehensive Comparison of Fiber Optic Pigtail Prices

Article Overview

Fiber optic pigtail prices vary by fiber type, connector, polish, and supplier, typically ranging from $1-$10 per unit for standard single-mode or multimode pigtails.

Price Factors

- Fiber Mode
 - Single-mode (SMF): Common for long-distance and FTTH applications; generally slightly more expensive than multimode due to tighter tolerances and lower attenuation requirements.
 - Multimode (MMF): Used for short-reach data center or LAN applications; usually cheaper than single-mode.
- Connector Type
 - SC, LC, ST, FC: LC connectors are smaller and often used in high-density environments, sometimes commanding a higher price per unit. SC and ST are widely used and moderately priced. FC connectors are less common and may be slightly more expensive.
- Polish Type
 - UPC (Ultra Physical Contact): Standard for most installations; generally lower cost.
 - APC (Angled Physical Contact): Provides lower back reflection, preferred for high-performance networks; typically costs more than UPC.
- Splicing Method...
