

Albania Lighting Explosion-proof Distribution Box Procurement

Article Overview

Explosion-proof distribution boxes and lighting in Albania can be procured through local distributors like Albaelettrica, international manufacturers such as Warom, or via public procurement platforms including E-ALBANIA and UNDP tenders.

Local Suppliers and Distributors

Albaelettrica is a leading Albanian distributor specializing in professional electrical and lighting solutions, including explosion-proof products. They collaborate with international brands and provide both DIN rail and wiring accessories, as well as specialized lighting solutions for industrial applications . Their partnerships with brands like DLU and Karman ensure access to high-quality explosion-proof lighting and distribution boxes suitable for hazardous environments.

International Manufacturers

Warom Technology manufactures a wide range of explosion-proof electrical equipment, including distribution boxes, lighting fixtures, control equipment, and cable connectors. Their products comply with international standards such as IEC, ATEX, and IECEx, making them suitable for petroleum, chemical, marine, and mining industries . Albanian buyers can contact Warom directly or work through local distributors for bulk procurement.
