

Pre-fabricated optical cable manufacturer supplies

Article Overview

Reliable suppliers of pre-fabricated fiber optic cables include AFL Global, Megladon, Spring Optical, Fiber Savvy, and Conrad Electronic, offering customizable, factory-tested assemblies for diverse applications.

Key Suppliers and Offerings

AFL Global provides a wide range of pre-terminated fiber optic cable assemblies, including single-mode and multimode options, designed for plug-and-play deployment in data centers and telecom networks. Their assemblies are factory-tested to ensure consistent performance and reliability. Megladon Manufacturing specializes in pre-terminated trunk cables and pigtails with their patented HLC® interconnect technology. They offer high fiber count assemblies (4 to 288+ fibers), bend-insensitive fibers, and ruggedized jackets for enhanced durability. Their products are suitable for data centers, building-level deployments, and outdoor applications. Spring Optical manufactures custom pre-terminated fiber optic cable assemblies for FTTH, enterprise networks, and telecom infrastructure. Their assemblies are factory-polished, tested for low insertion loss, and available with connectors such as MTP/MPO, LC, SC, or ST. They provide optional pulling eyes for easier installation and support harsh environmental conditions. Fiber Savvy offers custom pre-terminated fiber cables with a variety of fiber types (single-mode 9/125, multimode OM1, OM2, OM3) and strand counts (1 to 144). They provide indoor, outdoor, and armored jacket options, allowing deployment in conduit, aerial, or direct burial applications. Connector types include ST, SC, LC, and MTP. Conrad Electronic...
