

Price of outdoor optical cable in Sweden

Article Overview

Outdoor optical fiber cables in Sweden currently range from approximately $23,500 to $29,500 per ton, depending on type and supplier.

Market Pricing Overview

The Swedish optical fiber cable market has experienced fluctuations in recent years. In 2024, the average import price for optical fiber cables was around $29,559 per ton, while the average export price was approximately $23,979 per ton, reflecting a decline from previous years due to global market trends and supply-demand dynamics. Prices are influenced by fiber count, cable design (loose tube, ribbon, or flat drop), and suitability for outdoor installation.

Supplier and Product Options

Retailers and distributors in Sweden, such as Ahlsell, offer a wide range of outdoor optical cables suitable for backbone, distribution networks, and FTTH solutions. Examples include:

- Eurolan Uni LT fiber cables: Loose tube design, 2-24 fibers, suitable for outdoor installation in pipes, gel-filled for moisture protection.
- GAHSQ ribbon cables: 4-1000 fibers, longitudinally waterproof, halogen-free flame-retardant sheath, suitable for ducts and outdoor environments. Cables are typically sold in drums (e.g., 6000 meters) or cut lengths, and prices vary based on fiber count, construction, and protective features....
