

Well-known Algerian electrical distribution box manufacturer

Article Overview

Key Algerian manufacturers of electrical distribution boxes include Plastelec, EDIEL, and ELECAD, offering a wide range of MT/BT equipment for industrial and public infrastructure.

Plastelec

Plastelec is an Algerian company specializing in the manufacture and distribution of electrical equipment for medium and low voltage (MT/BT) applications. Their product range includes MT cells, transformers, generators, circuit breakers, contactors, distribution cabinets, and connectors, as well as solar panels and lighting solutions. Plastelec also distributes international brands such as CHINT, TEKSAN, and ELT, providing both local manufacturing and imported solutions. The company is located in Z.I. Tarf BenBadis, El Khroub-Constantine, Algeria and serves industrial and residential sectors .

EDIEL (ELEC EL DJAZAIR)

Founded in 1998, EDIEL is a national reference in Algeria for the fabrication, assembly, and commercialization of MT/BT electrical equipment. The company produces low voltage cabinets (TGBT, pumping cabinets, compensation cabinets) and medium voltage substations, including concrete and metallic kiosk-type PKM36 units and shelters. EDIEL works closely with major energy players like Sonelgaz and Sonatrach, as well as sectors such as hydraulics, agriculture, and public infrastru...
