

Where is the GTA power distribution box

Article Overview

Power distribution boxes in GTA V and GTA Online are primarily found at electrical substations, the Palmer-Taylor Power Station, and select high-voltage areas across Los Santos and Blaine County.

Key Locations

Los Santos Substations:

- LSDWP Rancho Substation: Located in Rancho, Los Santos, this substation is fenced and contains multiple high-voltage electrical boxes that can shock the player if touched .
 - LSDWP Vinewood Substation (Station Ten): Situated on Power Street in Downtown Vinewood, this Art Deco-style facility has multiple entrances and garage doors, with electrical boxes inside .
- Blaine County and Surrounding Areas:
- Ron Alternates Wind Farm: Several substations and power distribution boxes are scattered around the wind farm, supplying electricity to Sandy Shores .
 - Palmer-Taylor Power Station: Located in the San Chianski Mountain Range along Senora Way, east of the Ron Alternates Wind Farm, this facility contains multiple open electrical circuit panels and power distribution boxes .
- Other Notable Locations:
- Airport and Hills toward Blaine County: At least two open electrical circuit panels can be found, which will shock the player if touched .
